THE DANGEROUS POLICY

Major Denny Makes a Vigorous Speech Against Imperialism.

Republicans Encouraging Militarism and Doctrines Repugnant to the Constitution-Grave Questions to Be Settled by the American People at Coming Presidential Election.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18 .- Major Denny, the Democratic nominee for Congress, addressed a large and enthusiastic audience here last night. Major Denny began his address by asserting that his devotion to a free Government and its best interests is above all partion or section. He spoke of the provisions of the American Constitution which were intended to protect and and to secure to all the blessings of civil and religious liberty. He did not think these ideals were upheld by maintaining a large standing army to hold unwilling Asiatics in subjection or arrange territorial expansion on the plan of making colonies. His remarks were warmly applauded.

Speaking of the dangers which the country is facing, he said: "We are encouraging militarism in a we are encouraging mintarism in a country where large standing armies are to be deprecated as a menace to ourselves. We have been raising under the war measure acts during each of the three last years, approximating $900,000,000 yearly—a sum nearly double that raised before we undertook the grand act of liberating the Cubans from their oppressive yoke. We are for the first time in our history pro-claiming a dangerous doctrine—that Conown will, unrestrained by the Constitution. We are proclaimed to the world by our recent acts that we can buy not only lands, but the sovereignty of the people who own them, and that we can place over them military governors and keep them from representation in our common representa-tive Government as territorial dependen-

Major Denny said he appreciated highly his unanimous renomination, and, if elected to Congress, would use his best efforts to defend and maintain the principles of the Constitution as interpreted by the founders of the nation. Returning to national transfer of the sacrifice of our forefathers in founding this Government. The financial issues ought to be disregarded with the time its present policy toward the Porto Ricans? Shall it assume, righ fully, the power to tax its imports, when such power has never been claimed or exercise! over any other Territories during cur history. Shall there be expansion over the sovereignty of any foreign peopple by conquest, the consequence of which would be enforced obedience to our laws, simply because we possessed the power which we assumed to acquire when we made a we assumed to acquire when we made a treaty of peace with Spain?

"This nation has now been at war for two years with the Filipinos without even an act of Congress authorizing war, and yet we have failed even by force to and yet we have failed even by force to acquire full possession of those islands we bought at a time when we knew they were fighting Spain for their own freedom. Shall we stultify curselves, as the great exemplars of liberty enlighten as the world, by holding dependencies or colonial possessions, and to the same extent that England held one country he tent that England held our country be-fore the Revolution and as she n w holds India? Shall we follow in the wake of that proud war-making nation and gobble up a defenceless people, as England has the republics of South Africa. I can-

"The Democratic party, in the true spirit of liberty, steps forward and manfully appeals to the Government and to the majority in Congress, who are needand enormous expense, to change the course. We argue that they are assuming to lead us on dangerous grounds and into unknown and un-American ways.

The people want no foreign extensions. The people want no foreign extensions which require large standing armies to

"At the head of our party, which opposes wrong and oppression in every form, is the Hon. William J. Bryan, the epresentative of the people of this country on this momentous issue. He says the financial issue is but a trifle as comthe financial issue is but a trifle as com-pared with the new doctrine of imperial-istic government now inaugurated in Por-to Rico and the Philippines. If he is elected this Government will, with the aid of a Democratic Congress, return into the bright and safe paths of peace. paths are hedged about on either side by the Bill of Rights and the Constitution. A Democratic Congress will not claim the power to legislate outside of the Consti-tution and free from its limitations. It will not foreibly or otherwise extend its possessions beyond the Pacific ocean, but, on the contrary, it will lend its influences and encouragement to every nation strlying for freedom, and will enact laws that will justly and speedily relieve us from foreign territorial entanglements.'

Major Denny next devoted some time to Major Denny next devoted some time to the Porto Rican question. President Mc-Kinley, in his message to Congress, said it was our plain duty to abolish all customs tariffs and give to Porto Rican products free access to our markets. Representatives of the sugar industry, however, were powerful enough to cause the imposition of a tariff. "Thus," said Major Denny, an illegal purpose and for the first in the history of our nation, has ress levied a tax on part of its own annexed territory and not on another part, when Section 8 of Article I of the Constitution declares expressly that such constitution declares expressly that such taxes shall be uniform throughout the United States." Proceeding from this standpoint, the speaker said:
"We have been going from bad to worse under the impulse of great monopolies, protected by continued war taxes, until now the Republican party is able to all the contributions for campaign purposes they may require in order to have continued legislation for their monopolistic purposes, without due regard for the interest and peal to the full dinner pail; and to finar pear to the full dinner pail, and to man-cial prosperity for such as are supplying war material, regardless of the blood and great treasure the people have contribu-ted in taxes to maintain our declarations made in the interest of Cuban freedom We have fought for their liberties, and ntinue to fight to suppress the Filipi-is, from whom we are withholding the me blessing.

"The party in power cannot expect this grave departure from the letter pirit of our institution to be ratified by

Catarrh usually starts with a cold in the head, and if left unchecked in the climate, rarely gets well of iself.

As fresh cold is taken the disease spreads, getting deeper and deeper, creeping along the mucous membranes from nose to threat, from throat to windpipe, from windpipe to brenchial tubes, and from brenchial tubes to lung cells.

The mucous membranes all connect, one with another. Hence it is easy to spread from one part to another lined with this same membrane. This is why catarrh in the head soon effects the throat and finally the stomach itself, bringing on chronic catarrh of the stom-ach, which is a most obstinate form of Everybody is now well agreed that ca one, and the attempt to cure by local applications simply gives temporary relief from the purely local symp.oms without the remotest effect in staying the pro-gress of the disease.

There is a new preparation recently offered to the public that is apparently destined to do away with every other form of catarrh treatment. This new remedy is not a secret patent edicine, but is a large, pleasant tasting tablet composed of Sauguinaria, Eucalyptol. Guaiacol, Hydrastin, and o her val

tol. Guaiacol, Hydrastin, and o her valuable and harmless specifics, which are taken internally and seem to have a remarkably beneficial effect upon the blood and mucous membranes, apparen ly climinating the catarrhal poison from the whole system.

These tablets, while being pleasant, convenient, and absolutely safe to use, have made cures in long standing cases of catarrh that are little short of marvelous. They are sold by druzgis s undername of Stuart's Catarrh Tabiets, and any catarrh sufferer who has tried in-Cubans from their oppressive yoke. founders of the nation. Returning to national questions, he said:

"The grave questions now before this country are: Shall the Republican construction of the power of Congress to the gislate for the Territories, free from the restraints of the Constitution, prevail or not? Shall the Government continuous transfer of the power of the constitution, prevail or not? Shall the Government continuous transfer of the mancial issues ought to be disregarded until these principles for our national preservation are re-established and a lesson taught to the world that, notwithstanding sordid interests may at times largely sway our actions and partly undermine well-established governmental principles in the retions and partly undermine well-estab-lished governmental principles in the re-public, the people will not suffer a jot or tittle of that sacred charter of human rights to de destroyed.

"Wherever our flag permanently floats as the emblem of freedom the Constitu-tion ought also to go with all its protection and guarantees, and it ought not to stay unless it represents freedom to those over whom it floats. If the Philippines are American possessions, both by treaty and conquest, the protection of the Constitution must be there also—the right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happi-ness, the right of trial by jury and all the other guarantees of the Constitution. I apprehend that when the question is presented to the Supreme Court it will de-clare that such pursuit of happiness could not be restrained even if the Filipinos should desire to come into our own fa-

'If they are in American territory and entitled to the benefits of the Constitution and under the flag, they can come to America and enter into competition with our own laboring citizens and thereby degrade American labor, which, I hope, will never be permitted. We will not consent not for a moment subscribe to such a policy in this Government; to such examples of wrong and injustice.

"The fact is this Government, it seems therefore to their becoming citizens and we cannot consent to hold them as subjects. While a pabetter than these Asiatic hordes have heretofore been accustomed to vet we must suffer the greater penalty by contin-uing the unabated war taxes—in our own dreams to fulfill our destiny under Providence as a world power-in trying to excuses the breaches made in our great charter by technical attempts at apparent justification, in encouragement given to militarism and diverting the rising generation from peaceful productive inc into a nation of soldiers, and to that ex-

"To permanently retain these foreig possessions would require an immens standing army at all times, such as is re quired by the monarchs of Europe, and such foreign acquisitions must, necessarily, bring us oftentimes into the entanglements of European powers. If we enter upon this new imperial policy, then imperialism is fastened on us as a great oc-topus, and will be the inheritance of the next generation, with all the evils that necessarily follow in its train. COMPANION TO THE SHARK.

Pilotfish Put Into the Tank of New York's Aquarium.

(From the New York Sun.)
The four-foot sand shark exhibited at the Aquarium behind glass in a tank now has a new companion, or rather follower, in the shape of a little pilotish that was taken with a hook and line on September

That it is the way of the pilotfish to accompany sharks is familiar. Pilotfishes swim about with sharks, somewhere near them, wherever they go; sometimes de-parting from them in search of food for themselves, but commonly staying with them, and feeding, it may be, on scraps that the shark leaves of fishes that it de the Bitters. It cures the above disorders quickly and permanently. Plotfishes are often taken with sharks. A fisherman who should find, when he hauled one of his nets, as in fact he might, a dozen sand sharks in it, would be likely to take twenty or thirty pilot'Hechts' Greater Stores,' 513-515 Seventh Street.
